JOURNAL OFFICER.

FRANCIS HENDERSON, & OSBORN.

Mr. Buchanan's reply to General Scott will be found on our first page. The "old public functionary" does not help his deplorable case by his special pleading, while some of his allegations are monstrous. Thus, he says no arms were stolen from the Government at sea by Floyd, when it is notorious that Floyd confessed the theft in a speech at Richmond, justified it, and bragged how cleverly he had cheated the Yankees.

THE PREACHERS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.—It is a well-known fact that an impression prevails to a considerable extent among the slave population of Kentucky that they will be free on the first of January, under the proclamation of the President of the United States. If this delusion is not speedily corrected, it will be likely to lead to disastrous results to the negroes, and we know of no better means for correcting the delusion than through the pulpit of the African churches. We, therefore, for the sake of the welfare of the negroes, suggest to their preachers throughout the State to earnestly, zealously, and energetically set themselves to work to correct the evil at once. Kentucky is not in any way inclined to accept the President's proclamation. The proclamation expressly refers to States or portions of States that are either in open rebellion, and it distinctly states that no State or any portion even of a rebellious State, that shall be represented in the National Congress on the first day of January, will be released from the operation of the proclamation. Even New Orleans, rebellious as it is, will, if it elects a member of Congress under General Butler's proclamation, not be touched by the President's proclamation. The President's proclamation will be applicable to Eastern Virginia, which will have no representative in Congress on the 1st of January, but it will have no application at all to Northwestern Virginia, which will have its complement of members of Congress. We, therefore, hope that the Rev. Mr. Adams, the Rev. Mr. Smith, and all other preachers in the State, who have the pastoral care of African churches, will at once show by the sermons that their duty is recognised and performed. If the Apostle Paul could tell these members of the Corinthian church, who were "galliated into Christianity" while they were slaves, not to accept freedom even if it were offered to them, those who are subalterns of Paul may feel secure in walking in his path.

CITIZEN SHOT AND KILLED BY A SOLDIER. Hirian M. Kinman, an old citizen of Portland, was shot and killed on Saturday evening. As the guard, under command of Capt. Tapp, were passing through the streets of Portland, with a number of rebel troops in custody, shot for the Lexington on Saturday evening. These prisoners were a portion of the number taken in the battle of Chaplin Hills. There are yet remaining at Danville about one hundred and commanded to stand in the ranks. He refused, however, to obey the order, and left the ranks more than once. He was finally fired upon by a member of the guard and instantly killed. The deceased, who leaves a family in this city, had been in the rebel army, and was a soldier. The guard who did the shooting was placed under arrest, and will have an examination.

THEATRE.—Fanchon, the Cricket, which was laid aside on Saturday night to give a more varied bill for those whose avocations prevent them from attending the theatre on any other evening, will be presented to-night. Miss Maggie Mitchell is faultless in the personation of this part, which is a very original one, and requires talent of the most versatile character to act it. There are all the extremes of deep pathos and comic humor of madcap recklessness and womanly dignity, of despondency and of exuberant joy. The part is peculiarly suited to the physique of Miss Mitchell, and the dramatist had written it for her he could not have measured her capacity better than she has adapted herself to his creation.

IT will be seen by reference to the police proceedings that a quartette of boys were arraigned on Saturday upon the charge of stabbing a citizen named Joseph Schwartz, and that the examination of the case was continued until to-day. In the meantime three other youths have been arrested, all of whom rest under the same charge. They belong to a party of boys who devote themselves to petty larcenies on the landing and in that vicinity, and the police found in their possession a number of knives, pistols, comforts, and various other articles, which were no doubt stolen. Shopkeepers who have lost such goods are requested to call at the Police Office this morning, and identify them.

Rev. William Price, Chaplain of the Second Kentucky Infantry, is in our city with money for the families of soldiers of the First and Second Kentucky Regiments, and also some of the Thirty-first Indiana. He will go from here to Cincinnati and distribute some $25,000. He brings with him also the fragments of the flag of the latter regiment, to be presented to Governor Morton as an honored relic. It was at Fort Donelson, Shiloh, Corinth, and through the long march from McMinnville to Louisville and hence through Kentucky in pursuit of Bragg, never meeting a reverse, and upheld on all occasions with deepest gallantry.

THE LOUISVILLE GYMNASIUM.—The hall of this organization having been refitted, will be re-opened this evening. Classes will be formed at once for instruction in the healthful exercises peculiar to the society, which will be placed under the control of competent teachers. Our citizens should see that this excellent organization be generally sus-tailed. Col. Haggard, of the 5th Ky. Cavalry, has arrived in this city from Nashville, where he has been confined with inflammatory rheumatism since the 27th of August. He is ordered here for treatment; he is gradually improving and hopes to be able to take charge of his regiment in a few weeks.

THE tow-boats I. L. Hattie arrived from Pittsburgh on Saturday with seven barges of coal, and a number of smaller lots were also received. The Pittsburgh dealers seem disposed to sell at lower figures than fifteen cents per bushel by the large-loads.

ALL soldiers in hospital at Harrodsburg who are able to march or ride have been ordered to report to this city. This will take all but about one hundred from that place.

There have been sales of hogs in New Albany during the past week at $4 25/4 40 per hundred.

We are indebted to Mr. N. S. Lukens, the well known Adams Express messenger, for favors.

COWARDLY ASSAULT UPON MAJOR PLATTER. We report to learn that the gallant Major Platter, of the Fortieth Indiana Cavalry, was severely wounded a few days ago, near Slabtown, in the most cowardly manner by rebel pickets. The Evansville Journal says that while the Major was riding towards Slaughterville, some distance in front of his command, thinking of no danger, as a squad of his men had gone on ahead, three men and two women emerged from the brush, and two of them, armed with double-barrelled shotguns, commenced firing at him, but missed him. Major Platter drew his revolver, but found he could not fire without great danger to the women. He therefore charged singly on the party, when one of the cowardly crew leveled his gun, which, in the act of being fired, Major P. struck up with his revolver, the shot taking effect and inflicting a severe but not dangerous wound on the top of his head. The flesh is badly lacerated and the bone slightly injured. The Major arrived at Evansville on Friday on route for home, to recover from his wounds. He succeeded in wounding one of the cowardly assassins, after he was himself wounded. He gave notice that in future if women placed themselves as a safeguard around guerrillas, they must take guerrilla fire.

W. M. SURGEON 3d Reg't Ky. Vol.

DESP.—A total eclipse of the moon will take place commencing about midnight on Friday and continuing four hours on Saturday morning. The moon, in consequence of its position to the earth, will be faintly visible, and its disc appear of a copper hue.

CONSTRUCTION.—We stated a few days ago that Messrs. Blair & Snyder had succeeded Harde & Hough at 29 Cedar street, Nashville, Tenn. This was incorrect. Lieut. Chas. Alles does business at 29 Cedar st., and Harde & Hough are carrying on the book and stationery business at 48 College street, Nashville. We refer the reader to the advertisement of Harde & Co.

ATTENTION. TWENTY-SECOND KENTUCKY—LAST CALL.—Every member of the regiment present in or around the city will report at Barracks No. 1, Main, between Seventh and Eighth streets, to-day. To-morrow a list of all not reporting themselves will be published in the Journal.

WE invite attention to the card of Dr. McFee. The Doctor, after a very successful practice of eighteen years at Big Spring, Ky., has removed to our city to make it his permanent home. He will no doubt soon establish a good practice with us.
